Counsel for Plaintiff
JARED EDWARDS

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

JARED EDWARDS,
Plaintiff,

v.

KEENEN IVORY WAYANS, et al.,
Defendants.

CASE NO. CV10- 2231 R (RCx)

Assigned to Hon. Manuel L. Real
Courtroom 8

[PROPOSED] FINAL PRETRIAL CONFERENCE ORDER

Date: February 14, 2011
Time: 11:00 a.m.
Location: Courtroom 8

Following pretrial proceedings, pursuant to Rule 16, F.R.Civ.P. and L.R. 16,
IT IS ORDERED:

1. The parties are: Plaintiff Jared Edwards;
Defendant Keenen Ivory Wayans;
Defendant Shawn Wayans;
Defendant Marlon Wayans;
Defendant Wayans Brothers Productions;
St. Martin's Press, Inc.; and
Defendant St. Martin's Press, LLC.¹

¹ Pursuant to the Court's order on February 7, 2011, Plaintiff has leave to designate "St. Martin's Press, LLC" as a Defendant in this action in this Final Pretrial Conference Order. Plaintiff contends that the Court granted leave to identify St. Martin's Press, LLC as a party without amending the Complaint because this Final Pretrial Conference Order "supersede[s] the pleadings," and Defendants' counsel represented to the Court that Defendants have no objection to the designation of St.

1 St. Martin's Press, LLC has not been served nor has it appeared (see FN.1).
2 All other parties named in the pleadings and not identified in the preceding paragraph 3 are now dismissed.

4 The pleadings which raise the issues are: (i) Plaintiff's Complaint; (ii)
5 Defendants' Keenen Ivory Wayans, Shawn Wayans, Marlon Wayans and Wayans
6 Brothers Productions First Amended Answer to Plaintiff's Complaint; and (iii) the 7 First Amended Answer by St. Martin's Press, Inc.

8 The parties disagree as to the pleadings which are or will be at issue because 9 Plaintiff contends it does not need to file a First Amended Complaint where 10 Defendants maintain that Plaintiff has leave to do so, but must still file the First 11 Amended Complaint and serve the same on St. Martin's Press, LLC (see FN.1).

12 2. Federal jurisdiction and venue are invoked upon the grounds:

13 The Court has jurisdiction over Plaintiff's claims arising under the Copyright
14 Act pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1338(a). The Court has supplemental jurisdiction over 15 Plaintiff's related claim arising under state law pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a).
16 Venue is proper in this district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1400(a), as Defendants and/or 17 Defendants' agents reside and may be found in this district. Defendants deny that the 18 Court has jurisdiction over St. Martin's Press, LLC as the party has not been named 19 in this action nor has the party been served with a complaint.

20 The facts requisite to federal jurisdiction are admitted.

21 3. The trial is estimated to take 6 trial days.

22 4. The trial is to be a jury trial.

23 At least seven (7) days prior to the trial date each party shall file and 24 serve by e-mail, fax, or personal delivery: (a) proposed jury instructions as 25 required by L.R. 51-1 and (b) any special questions requested to be asked on 26 voir dire.

27 5. The following facts are admitted and require no proof:

28 (i) St. Martin's Press, LLC is a New York Limited Liability
Company with its principal place of business at 175 Fifth Avenue, New York,

Martin's Press, LLC as a party herein, but indicated that service on St. Martin's Press, LLC is necessary. St. Martin's Press, LLC has not been served nor has it appeared. Counsel for Defendant St. Martin's Press, Inc. and St. Martin's Press, LLC will agree to accept service on behalf of the LLC and will agree to file an answer timely as required by the Federal Code of Civil Procedure. However, in the event that St. Martin's Press, Inc. is served, counsel for Defendant St. Martin's Press, Inc. and St. Martin's Press, LLC also reserve the right to file a pre-answer motion, pursuant to Rule 12 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, on behalf of Defendants.
Plaintiff contends that St. Martin's Press, Inc. has participated in this litigation and produced discovery on behalf of St. Martin's Press, LLC and service is not required.

New York.

(ii) St. Martin's Press, Inc. is now known as SMP (1952), Inc. and is a New York Corporation with a principal place of business at 175 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York.

(iii) Defendant Wayans Bros. Productions is a production company and California corporation located at 8730 Sunset Blvd, Suite 290, West Hollywood, CA 90069. Defendants Keenen Ivory, Shawn and Marlon Wayans each own one-third of Defendant Wayans Bros. Productions.

(iv) The work entitled "You know you're a Gold Digger when..." was registered with the United States Copyright Office, Registration Number TXu 1-612-358 effective August 23, 2009, by author Jared Edwards.

6. The following facts, though stipulated, shall be without prejudice to any evidentiary objection:

(i) The book entitled "150 Ways to Tell You're Ghetto" was published by Dell Publishing, a division of Bantam Doubleday Dell Publishing, Inc., copyright 1997 and co-authored by Shawn Wayans, Chris Spencer, and Suli McCullough.

(ii) The book entitled "101 Ways to Know You're a Golddigger" was registered with the United States Copyright Office, Registration Number TX 7-064-388 effective July 6, 2009 by co-authors by Keenen Ivory Wayans, Shawn Wayans, and Marlon Wayans.

(iii) The Keenen Ivory Wayans Show aired in original seasons from August 1997 until March 1998.

(iv) The Wayans Bros. sitcom aired in original seasons from Jan. 1995 to May 1999.

7. Plaintiff:

(a) Plaintiff plans to pursue the following claims against the following Defendants:

Claim 1: All Defendants infringed Plaintiff's copyright in violation of the Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. §§ 101 et seq.

Claim 2: Plaintiff's statement of Claim 2: Defendants Keenen Ivory Wayans, Shawn Wayans, Marlon Wayans and Wayans Brothers Productions breached an implied contract with Plaintiff under California law.

Defendants' statement of Claim 2: Defendants Keenen Ivory Wayans, Shawn Wayans, Marlon Wayans and Wayans Brothers Productions breached an implied contract for the sale of the work with Plaintiff under California law.

Defendants maintain that Plaintiff needs to clarify the breach of implied contact on Plaintiff's prior representations that it seeks a Desny claim for breach of an implied in fact contract for the sale of the work in question under California law.

(b) The Elements Required to Establish Plaintiff's Claims Are

Copyright infringement under the Copyright Act:

- (1) Plaintiff is the owner of a valid copyright; and
- (2) Defendants copied original elements from the copyrighted work.
- (3) Defendants contend that proof of actual damages and/or profits attributable to the infringement is an "element" of Plaintiff's Copyright infringement claim because Plaintiff is barred from recovery of statutory damages. Plaintiff contends that such damages will be demonstrated by proof at trial, but are not an "element" of the claim.

Breach of implied contract under California law:

- (1) Plaintiff prepared the work;
- (2) Plaintiff disclosed the work to Defendants for sale;
- (3) Plaintiff did so under circumstances from which it could be concluded that Defendants voluntarily accepted the disclosure knowing the conditions on which it was tendered and the reasonable value of the work; and
- (4) Defendants breached the implied in fact contract with Plaintiff. Defendants contend that proof of damages resulting from breach of the implied contract is an "element" of the claim. Plaintiff contends that such damages will be demonstrated by proof at trial, but are not an "element" of the claim.

(c) In brief, the key evidence Plaintiff relies on for each of the claims is:

Copyright infringement under the Copyright Act:

- (1) Plaintiff's copyright registration; Plaintiff's registration with the Writer's Guild of America; drafts of Plaintiff's manuscript; correspondence among Defendants; Defendants' Interrogatory Responses and Declarations submitted in this case; draft artwork; Plaintiff's deposition testimony and anticipated trial testimony; Defendants Shawn Wayans, Marlon Wayans and Keenen Ivory Wayans' deposition testimony and anticipated trial testimony; anticipated trial testimony of Ahyoung N. Kim, former V.P. Product Development for the Wayans Defendants, concerning the development of Plaintiff's book and Defendants' infringing book; anticipated trial testimony of current and former employees of Defendants concerning the development of Plaintiff's book and Defendants' infringing book.
- (2) Plaintiff's copyright registration; Plaintiff's registration with the Writer's Guild of America; drafts of Plaintiff's manuscript; correspondence among Defendants; Defendants' Interrogatory Responses and Declarations submitted in this case; draft artwork; Plaintiff's deposition testimony and anticipated trial testimony;

Defendants Shawn Wayans, Marlon Wayans and Keenen Ivory Wayans' deposition testimony and anticipated trial testimony; anticipated trial testimony of Ahyoung N. Kim, former V.P. Product Development for the Wayans Defendants, concerning the development of Plaintiff's book and Defendants' infringing book; anticipated trial testimony of current and former employees of Defendants concerning the development of Plaintiff's book and Defendants' infringing book; Defendants' annual profit and loss statements; Defendants' contracts and correspondence concerning their infringing book and the publication of Plaintiff's book without attribution.

Breach of implied contract under California law:

- (1) Drafts of Plaintiff's manuscript; correspondence among Defendants; Plaintiff's deposition testimony and anticipated trial testimony; Defendants Shawn Wayans, Marlon Wayans and Keenen Ivory Wayans' deposition testimony and anticipated trial testimony; anticipated trial testimony of Ahyoung N. Kim, former V.P. Product Development for the Wayans Defendants, concerning the development of Plaintiff's book and Defendants' infringing book; anticipated trial testimony of current and former employees of Defendants concerning the development of Plaintiff's book.
- (2) Drafts of Plaintiff's manuscript; correspondence among Defendants; Plaintiff's deposition testimony and anticipated trial testimony; Defendants Shawn Wayans, Marlon Wayans and Keenen Ivory Wayans' deposition testimony and anticipated trial testimony; anticipated trial testimony of Ahyoung N. Kim, former V.P. Product Development for the Wayans Defendants, concerning the development of Plaintiff's book and Defendants' infringing book; anticipated trial testimony of current and former employees of Defendants concerning the development of Plaintiff's book.
- (3) Plaintiff's deposition testimony and anticipated trial testimony; Defendants Shawn Wayans, Marlon Wayans and Keenen Ivory Wayans' deposition testimony and anticipated trial testimony.

Defendants:

(a) Defendants plan to pursue the following affirmative defenses:

Affirmative Defense 1 to Copyright Claim: Plaintiff is not the owner of a valid copyright because, pursuant to 17 U.S.C § 201(b), Defendants Keenen Ivory Wayans, Shawn Wayans, Marlon Wayans and Wayans Bros. Productions as Plaintiff's employers are considered the author for purposes of this title, and own all of the rights comprised in the copyright. As a result, Plaintiff cannot maintain a valid copyright claim against any of the named Defendants.

Affirmative Defense 2 to Copyright Claim: In the alternative, Plaintiff is not the owner of a valid copyright because, pursuant to 17 U.S.C §

201(c), because at most, Defendants Keenen Ivory Wayans, Shawn Wayans, Marlon Wayans and Wayans Bros. Productions jointly authored the work with Plaintiff and as a result Defendants Keenen Ivory Wayans, Shawn Wayans, Marlon Wayans and Wayans Bros. Productions own an undivided right comprised in the copyright to the whole. As a result, Plaintiff cannot maintain a valid copyright claim against any of the named Defendants.

Affirmative Defense 1 to Breach of Implied-in-Fact Contract (waiver): Plaintiff has waived performance by the Wayans Defendants under an implied-in-fact contract for the sale.

Affirmative Defense 2 to Breach of Implied-in-Fact Contract (statute of limitations): Plaintiff's claim for breach of implied in fact contract is barred by the applicable statute of limitations found in California Code of Civil Procedure Section 339.

Affirmative Defense 3 to Breach of Implied-in-Fact Contract (laches): Plaintiff's claim for breach of implied-in-fact contract is barred in whole by the doctrine of laches because Plaintiff as unreasonably delayed in bringing this action for breach of implied-in-fact contract.

Affirmative Defense 4 to Breach of Implied-in-Fact Contract (estoppel): Plaintiff is equitably estopped from asserting a breach of implied in fact contract claim against the Wayans Defendants.

(b) The elements required to establish Defendants' affirmative defenses are as follows:

Elements for Affirmative Defense 1 to Copyright Claim: "Work Made For Hire":

(i) Defendants' Statement of Elements: A work made for hire is (1) one that is prepared by an employee which includes consideration of numerous factors such as (a) the skills required to create the work (b) the source of the tools or instruments used to create the work; (c) the source of the tools or instruments used to create the work; (d) the source of the tools or instruments used to create the work; (e) tax treatment of the creator by the employer; (f) whether the creator had discretion over when and how long to work; (g) whether the employer had the right to assign additional projects to the creator; (h) duration of the relationship between the parties; (i) the method of payment; (j) whether the creator hired (or could have hired) and paid his or her own assistants; (k) whether the employer is a business; and (2) in carrying out the employer's business (in the course and scope of his employment), which includes consideration of (a) whether the work was the kind of work Plaintiff was employed to perform, (b) whether Plaintiff created work substantially within work hours and space, and (c) work was actuated by a desire to serve the employer, See NCMJI at 17.9; 17 U.S.C. §201(b).

(ii) Plaintiff's Statement of Elements: A work made for hire is one that is prepared by (i) an employee, (ii) in carrying out the employer's business and within the scope of the employee's employment.

1 To determine whether the creator or a work was an employee or 2 an independent contractor under common-law agency principles, the 3 following eleven factors, none of which are individually dispositive, are 4 relevant considerations: (a) the skills required to create the work (b) the 5 source of the tools or instruments used to create the work; (c) the source 6 of the tools or instruments used to create the work; (d) the source of the 7 tools or instruments used to create the work; (e) tax treatment of the 8 creator by the employer; (f) whether the creator had discretion over 9 when and how long to work; (g) whether the employer had the right to 10 assign additional projects to the creator; (h) duration of the relationship
11 between the parties; (i) the method of payment; (j) whether the creator
12 hired (or could have hired) and paid his or her own assistants; and (k)
13 whether the employer is a business.

8 To determine whether an employee created a work “in carrying 9 out the employer’s business and within the scope of the employee’s
10 employment,” each of the following three questions must be answered 11 in the affirmative: (a) is it the kind of work the author is employed to 12 perform?; (b) was the work created substantially within authorized work 13 hours and space?; and (c) was the work created for the purpose of 14 serving the employer?

12 Elements for Alternative Affirmative Defense 2 to Copyright Claim: “Joint 13 Authorship”:

14 (i) Defendants’ Statement of Elements: A work is a joint work
15 under the Act where (1) there are at least two authors of the work and 16 (2) each author has made a substantial and valuable contribution to the 17 work; (3) each author intended that their contributions be merged into 18 inseparable or interdependent parts of a unitary whole; and (4) each 19 author contributed material to the joint work which could have been 20 independently copyrighted. See NCMJI at 17.7; see also Siegel v. Time
21 Warner, Inc., 496 F. Supp. 2d 1111, 1144 (C.D. Cal. 2007).

18 (ii) Plaintiff’s Statement of Elements: A work is a joint work
19 under the Act where: (1) each author has made a substantial and 20 valuable contribution to the work; (2) each author must have intended 21 that their contributions be merged into inseparable or interdependent 22 parts of a unitary whole; (3) each author must have fully intended to be 23 joint authors; and (4) each author contributed material to the joint work 24 which could have been independently copyrighted.

22 Elements for Affirmative Defense 1 to Breach of Implied-in-Fact Contract
23 (waiver):

24 (i) Defendants’ Statement of Elements: (1) Plaintiff claims
25 that the Wayans Defendants were required to pay Plaintiff for his 26 service of dropping off the manuscript; and (2) Plaintiff freely and 27 knowingly gave up his right to have the Wayans Defendants perform
28 this obligation. 1-300 Judicial Council of California Civil Jury Instructions (“CACI”) 336.

1 (ii) Plaintiff's Statement of Elements: Plaintiff intentionally
2 relinquished his rights in the work with full knowledge of their existence
3 and with the intent to relinquish them.

4 Elements for Affirmative Defense 2 to Breach of Implied-in-Fact Contract
5 (statute of limitations):

6 Plaintiff filed his lawsuit more than two years after the alleged cause of 7 action for breach of implied in fact contract accrued and as a result,
8 Plaintiff's claim is barred by the applicable statute of limitations found 9 in California Code of Civil Procedure Section 339.

10 Elements for Affirmative Defense 3 to Breach of Implied-in-Fact Contract
11 (laches):

12 (1) Plaintiff delayed in asserting a right or a claim; (2) the delay was not 13 reasonable or excusable; and (3) prejudice to the party against whom 14 laches is asserted. Miller v. Glenn Miller Productions, Inc., 454 F.3d
15 975, 997 (9th Cir. 2006).

16 Elements for Affirmative Defense 4 to Breach of Implied-in-Fact Contract
17 (estoppel):

18 (1) Plaintiff misrepresented and/or concealed matters of fact as to the 19 basis for the breach of implied in fact contract; (2) Plaintiff intended that 20 the Wayans Defendants act upon the assumption of the truth of that 21 fact(s); (3) the Wayans Defendants were ignorant of the true facts; and 22 (4) the Wayans Defendants relied to their injury upon the conduct of 23 Plaintiff. See Banco Mercantil, S. A. v. Sauls, Inc., 140 Cal. App. 2d 24 316, 323 (1956).

25 (c) In brief, the key evidence Defendants rely on for each of their 26 affirmative defenses is:

27 Key Evidence for Affirmative Defense 1 to Copyright Claim:

28 (1) based on the testimony of Plaintiff and Wayans Defendants,
Plaintiff was their full-time employee and the work, to the extent
Plaintiff contributed, was one prepared by him as full-time employee.

(2) based on Plaintiff's testimony, testimony of the Wayans
Defendants, former co-workers of Plaintiff, the testimony of Ahyoung
Kim, Shane Miller, David Torres, and documentary exhibits, and Plaintiff will establish that Plaintiff's contribution was in the course and scope of his employment.

Key Evidence for Affirmative Defense 2 to Copyright Claim:

(1) at most, the Wayans Defendants (Defendants Keenen Ivory
Wayans, Shawn Wayans, Marlon Wayans and Wayans. Bros.
Productions) authored the work jointly with Plaintiff based on Plaintiff's testimony as well as testimony of Wayans Defendants.

1 (2) based on Plaintiff's own testimony Plaintiff claims he contributed to the work in question substantially.

2 (3) based on testimony of Plaintiff and Wayans Defendants, each author intended that their contributions be merged into inseparable or 3 interdependent parts of a unitary whole.

4 (4) based on testimony of Plaintiff and the written exhibits, each author contributed material to the joint work which could have been
5 independently copyrighted

6 Key Evidence for Affirmative Defense 1 to Breach of Implied-in-Fact Contract (waiver):

8 (1) Plaintiff testified that he dropped off a manuscript with his employers on or about June 2006 and he made no claim for
9 compensation for services allegedly performed in conveying that manuscript until filing this complaint on December 17, 2009.

10 (2) Plaintiff freely and knowingly gave up his right to have the Wayans Defendants perform this obligation by leaving his employment 11 without any discussion of payment.

12 Key Evidence for Affirmative Defense 2 to Breach of Implied-in-Fact Contract (Statute of Limitations):

14 (1) Plaintiff testified that he dropped off a manuscript with his employers on or about June 2006 and he made no claim for
15 compensation for services allegedly performed in conveying that manuscript until filing this complaint on December 17, 2009.

16 (2) Plaintiff's implied contract claim is barred by the two year statute of limitations for a breach of contract claim. California Code of Civil 17 Procedure § 339.

18 Key Evidence Affirmative Defense 3 to Breach of Implied in Fact Contract (Laches):

19
20 (1) Plaintiff testified that he dropped off a manuscript with his employers on or about June 2006 and he made no claim for
21 compensation for services allegedly performed in conveying that manuscript until filing this complaint on December 17, 2009.

22 (2) Plaintiff's delay was unreasonable based on his own testimony and the testimony of the Wayans Defendants.

24 (3) Plaintiff's delay was considerable and prejudiced defendants who proceeded to publish work without knowledge that Plaintiff believed he 25 had a right to compensation. The testimony of the Wayans Defendants as well as Plaintiff's own testimony will support the elements of this 26 claim.

27 Key Evidence for Affirmative Defense 4 to Breach of Implied in Fact Contract (Estoppel):

(1) Plaintiff misrepresented and/or concealed the origins of the manuscript that he dropped off with his employers based on Plaintiff's testimony as well as the testimony of the Wayans Defendants;

(2) Plaintiff intended that the Wayans Defendants act upon the assumption of the truth of that fact(s) based on Plaintiff's testimony as well as the testimony of the Wayans Defendants;

(3) the Wayans Defendants were ignorant of the true facts based on the testimony of the Wayans Defendants; and

(4) the Wayans Defendants relied to their injury upon the conduct of Plaintiff based on the testimony of the Wayans Defendants based on the testimony of the Wayans Defendants.

8. In view of the admitted facts and the elements required to establish the claims, counterclaims and affirmative defenses, the following issues remain to be tried:

Claim 1: Whether Plaintiff owns a copyright that Defendants infringed in violation of the Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. §§ 101 et seq.

Claim 2: Whether Defendants Keenen Ivory Wayans, Shawn Wayans, Marlon Wayans and Wayans Bros. Productions breached an implied contract with Plaintiff under California law.

Defense 1: Whether Plaintiff's claim for breach of an implied in fact contract has been waived.

Defense 2: Whether Plaintiff's claim for breach of an implied in fact contract is barred by the applicable statute of limitations.

Defense 3: Whether Plaintiff's claim for breach of an implied in fact contract is barred by the doctrine of laches.

Defense 4: Whether Plaintiff is equitably estopped from asserting a claim for breach of an implied in fact contract.

9. All discovery is complete.

10. All disclosures under F.R.Civ.P. 26(a)(3) have been made.

The joint exhibit list of the parties has been filed under separate cover as required by L.R. 16-6.1. Unless all parties agree that an exhibit shall be withdrawn, all exhibits will be admitted without objection at trial, except those exhibits listed below:

Plaintiff objects to Exhibit Nos.: 3, 101, 118-119, 130, 140-147, 149-151, 154-155, 157-170, 172-176, 179, 181-187, 189-228, 289-292, 294, 296, 300-302, 305-316, 318-337, 339-341, 343-381, 383-385, 388, 390, 392-393, 395, 398-400, 402-410 and 412.
